MOTION TO ALLOW/DEEM TIMELY
LATE FILING OF PROOF OF CLAIM
BY GUY AND TERESA MOLINARI,
MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES; DECLARATION OF UZAIR SALEEM IN SUPPORT

Date: February 9, 2021
Time: 10a.m. (Pacific Time)
Place: United States Bankruptcy Court
Courtroom 17, 16th Floor
San Francisco, CA 94102
Judge: Hon. Dennis Montali

TO THE HONORABLE DENNIS MONTALI, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCH COURT
JUDGE, THE OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRUSTEE, AND ALL INTERESTED PARTIES:

Skikos, Crawford, Skikos, & Joseph LLP represents thousands of victims of the Fires started by PG&E in 2017 (generally referred to as the “North Bay Fires”), 2018 (“Camp Fire”) and 2019 (“Kincade Fire”). Skikos, Crawford, Skikos, & Joseph LLP respectfully files this motion on behalf of Guy and Teresa Molinari (“Movants”) to deem timely late filing of proofs of claims (“Motion”).

1 I. SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

2 A proof of claim may be deemed timely upon a showing of excusable neglect and lack of 3 prejudice to the Debtors. In this case, Movant is a former employee of the Debtor, PG&E and 4 feared retaliatory consequences for filing an action against his employer of 38 years in addition to 5 feeling an overwhelming sense of loyalty to his former employer. Movants did not understand
6 that their claim extended beyond just physical property damage. Movants then suffered a second
7 loss as a result of the 2019 Kincade Fire. They were uninsured for their losses and overwhelmed
8 by the prospect of clearing their destroyed lot themselves along with the logistical challenges of 9 rebuilding their property. Movants retained counsel to discuss a possible claim against PG&E for 10 the Kincade Fire, at which point they became better educated about the extent of their damages as 11 a result of the Tubbs Fire. Ultimately, Movants' fear of retaliation in addition to 12 misunderstanding the extent of their claim prevented Movants from timely filing a proof of claim.
13 Because their claim is a consequence of excusable neglect, there is no danger of prejudice to the 14 Debtors, and the claims were made in good faith, this Motion should be granted to allow Guy and 15 Teresa Molinari to have their claims deemed timely.

16 II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

17 A. Movants' Claims Arising from Tubbs Fire

18 Creditors Guy and Teresa Molinari ("Molinari") own their home at 1642 Brandee Lane, 19 Santa Rosa, CA. The Molinaris, long-time residents of Santa Rosa, purchased their home in 2001.
20 Guy Molinari was an employee of PG&E for 38 years. He retired in August of 2017. Guy
21 Molinari felt a strong sense of loyalty to his life-long employer.

22 On October 8, 2017, the Tubbs Fire began burning through Napa and Sonoma counties.
23 Around 2:00 A.M on October 9, 2017, the Molinaris awoke to their neighbors pounding on their
24 door as the fire was engulfing their beloved Coffey Park neighborhood. Without any time, notice,
25 or opportunity to save any of their personal possessions, they evacuated from their home. As red-
26 hot embers from the fire began to blow across their car's windshield and their neighbor's juniper
27 bush burst into flames as they got into their car, they barely escaped the fire with their lives.
28 Within minutes, their home and neighborhood would burn to the ground. See Declaration of Uzair

1 Saleem (“Saleem Decl.”)

2 In the aftermath of the fire, the Molinaris suffered the loss of their home, their personal
3 property, and their community. Additionally, the Molinaris were overcome by their own
4 emotional distress and physical injury from their fire evacuation, displacement, and the logistical
5 demands of finding a new place to live. The Molinaris were displaced for over 17 months as they
6 oversaw the exhausting and complicated process of rebuilding their home. In October 2019, the
7 Molinaris suffered another horrible property loss as a result of the Kincade Fire, this time with a
8 weekend home they owned in Healdsburg, CA. Their second home was uninsured and the time,
9 the cost and energy to just clear the property, let alone the prospect of rebuilding a home again,
10 prompted the Molinaris to consult with an attorney. After the Kincade Fire, two years after the
11 Tubbs Fire, the Molinaris began to assess and understand the scope of the emotional and financial
12 toll these damages were causing to themselves.

13 In February of 2020, the Molinaris contacted Skikos, Crawford, Skikos & Joseph, LLP
14 (“Skikos”) to evaluate their claims against PG&E for damages sustained from the Kincade Fire.
15 During the normal course of due diligence, Skikos inquired about possible damages from the
16 2017 Tubbs Fire, knowing that the Molinaris’ primary residence was in Coffey Park. It was not
17 until the Molinaris sought the advice of counsel regarding their 2019 Kincade Fire damages did
18 they appreciate the viability of their claims related to their 2017 Tubbs Fire damages.
19 Additionally, at this point the Molinaris understood that there would be no retaliation by PG&E
20 or their pension status for filing a claim. As a result, due to excusable unawareness, the Molinaris
21 did not timely file a proof of claim for their 2017 damages until after the bar date. See (“Saleem
22 Decl.”)

23 III. LEGAL ARGUMENT

24 In Chapter 11 proceedings, bankruptcy courts have broad discretion to accept late filings,
25 including proofs of claim, where tardiness is the consequence of “excusable neglect.” Fed. R.
26 Bank. Pro. 9006(b)(1). This standard is “flexible,” and permits the Court to allow “late filings
27 caused by inadvertence, mistake, or carelessness, as well as by intervening circumstances beyond
28 the party’s control.” Pioneer Inv. Servs. Co. v. Brunswick Assocs. Ltd. P’ship, 507 U.S. 380, 389

1 (1993). Where the party's delay is caused by overwhelming personal distress, a late filing may be
2 allowed on grounds of excusable neglect. See e.g., In re Nw. Territorial Mint, LLC, No. AP 16
3 1217-CMA, 2018 WL 6187762, at *5 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. Nov. 27, 2018) ("Excusable neglect can
4 include sudden death, disability or illness of counsel, a close family member of counsel, or . . . the
5 party."); In re Schultz, 254 B.R. 149, 154 (B.A.P. 6th Cir. 2000) (same); TCI Group Life Ins. Plan
6 v. Knoebber, 244 F.3d 691, 699 (9th Cir. 2001) (excusable neglect where party was experiencing 7 extreme personal difficulties and was "distraught") (overruled on other grounds); Comm. for 8 Idaho's High Desert, Inc. v. Yost, 92 F.3d 814, 824 (9th Cir. 1996) (holding that "compelling 9 circumstances" in one's personal life may constitute excusable neglect).

10 The test for excusable neglect is "at bottom an equitable [inquiry]." Pioneer Inv. Servs.
11 Co., 507 U.S. at 395. Courts in the Ninth Circuit generally examine four (4) factors in 12 their analysis: (i) the danger of prejudice to the non-movant, (ii) the length of delay and its 13 potential impact on the judicial proceedings, (iii) the reason for the delay, and (iv) whether the 14 movant acted in good faith. See id. Each of these four factors weighs heavily in favor the 15 Molinaris. Accordingly, their late proof of claims should be deemed timely.

16 First, the Molinaris' claim will not prejudice PG&E, there is no danger of prejudice here.
17 The value of the Molinaris' claims are marginal relative to the Debtors' estates and the allowance
18 of those claims will not disrupt the reorganization or distribution process. Debtors' estates are 19 solvent, and all creditors stand to be paid. See, e.g., In re Best Payphones, Inc., 523 B.R. 54, 75-6 20 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2015) and In re Sheehan Mem'l Hosp., 507 B.R. 802, 803 (Bankr. W.D.N.Y.
21 2014) (where the chapter 11 estate is solvent, "the proper remedy for a late filing is not the 22 expungement of a claim, but its allowance as a tardily filed claim only.).

23 Second, despite the late filing, the Molinaris' claim will have essentially zero impact on 24 the judicial proceedings and will not change PG&E's reorganization process. There are tens of 25 thousands of similarly situated claimants as the Molinaris and their claims will be placed among 26 them, resulting in no noticeable impact upon the distribution process. See e.g., In re Dix, 95 B.R.
27 134, 138 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1988) (allowing proof of claim filed two-years late because "there is no
28 indication [of] a negative impact on efficient court administration"); In re Earth Rock, Inc., 153

1 B.R. at 63 (finding excusable neglect where eight-month delay would not impact reorganization
2 proceedings).

3 Third, the factual circumstances in the Molinaris' case warrants excusable neglect.
4 Creditors Guy and Teresa Molinari ("Molinari") own their home at 1642 Brandee Lane, Santa
5 Rosa, CA. The Molinaris, long-time residents of Santa Rosa, purchased their home in 2001. Guy
6 Molinari was an employee of PG&E for 38 years. He retired in August of 2017. Guy Molinari felt 7 a strong sense of loyalty to his life-long employer.

8 On October 8, 2017, the Tubbs Fire began burning through Napa and Sonoma counties.
9 Around 2:00 A.M on October 9, 2017, the Molinaris awoke to their neighbors pounding on their
10 door as the fire was engulfing their beloved Coffey Park neighborhood. Without any time, notice,
11 or opportunity to save any of their personal possessions, they evacuated from their home. As red-
12 hot embers from the fire began to blow across their car's windshield and their neighbor's juniper
13 bush burst into flames as they got into their car, they barely escaped the fire with their lives.
14 Within minutes, their home and neighborhood would burn to the ground. See Declaration of Uzair
15 Saleem ("Saleem Decl.")

16 In the aftermath of the fire, the Molinaris suffered the loss of their home, their personal
17 property, and their community. Additionally, the Molinaris were overcome by their own
18 emotional distress and physical injury from their fire evacuation, displacement, and the logistical
19 demands of finding a new place to live. The Molinaris were displaced for over 17 months as they
20 oversaw the exhausting and complicated process of rebuilding their home. In October 2019, the
21 Molinaris suffered another horrible property loss as a result of the Kincade Fire, this time with a 22 weekend home they owned in Heladsburg, CA. Their second home was uninsured and the time,
23 cost, and energy to just clear the property, let alone the prospect of rebuilding a home again,
24 prompted the Molinaris to consult with an attorney. After the Kincade Fire, two years after the
25 Tubbs Fire, the Molinaris began to assess and understand the scope of the emotional and financial
26 toll these damages were causing to themselves.

27 In February of 2020, the Molinaris contacted Skikos, Crawford, Skikos & Joseph, LLP
28 ("Skikos") to evaluate its claim against PG&E for damages sustained from the Kincade Fire.

1 During the normal course of due diligence, Skikos inquired about possible damages from the
2 2017 Tubbs Fire, knowing that the Molinaris' primary residence was in Coffey Park. It was not
3 until the Molinaris sought the advice of counsel regarding their 2019 Kincade Fire damages did
4 they appreciate the viability of their claims related to their 2017 Tubbs Fire damages.
5 Additionally, at this point the Molinaris understood that there would be no retaliation by PG&E
6 or their pension status for filing a claim. As a result, due to excusable unawareness, the Molinaris
7 did not timely file a proof of claim for their 2017 damages until after the bar date. See ("Saleem
8 Decl.") See e.g., Comm. for Idaho's High Desert, Inc. v. Yost, 92 F.3d 814, 824 (9th Cir. 1996)
9 ("compelling circumstances" in one's personal life may constitute excusable neglect).

10 Ultimately, the Molinaris' claim was made in good faith. Overwhelmed by staggering 11 economic losses and trying to manage the logistical challenges of recovering from the fire, the 12 Molinaris were not represented by counsel until after the bar date and did not have the time or 13 opportunity to comprehend filing a claim in the bankruptcy for their loss. Had they been informed 14 or aware of the bar date, they would have timely filed a proof of claim.

15 IV. CONCLUSION

16 For the foregoing reasons, this Motion should be granted and the Molinaris' claim should 17 be deemed timely.

Declaration of Uzair Saleem

I, Uzair Saleem, declare as follows:

1. I am an individual over 18 years of age and competent to make this Declaration.
2. If called upon to testify, I could and would competently testify as to the facts set forth in this Declaration. The facts set forth below are true based on my personal knowledge or through information obtained my staff.
3. I am an attorney of the law firm Skikos, Crawford, Skikos, & Joseph LLP and I make this declaration in support of the Motion to Allow/Deem Timely Late Filing of Proof of Claim.
4. Creditors Guy and Teresa Molinari are survivors of the Tubbs Fire that occurred in 2017.
5. Guy and Teresa Molinari ("Molinari") live at 1642 Brandee Lane, Santa Rosa, CA.
6. The Molinaris are long-time residents of Santa Rosa. They purchased their home in 2001.
7. Guy Molinari worked for PG&E for 38 years.
8. As a result of the Tubbs Fire, the Molinaris fled from their home in the middle of the night and suffered severe emotional distress and physical injury as a result of their evacuation. Their home was destroyed by the Tubbs Fire.
9. The Molinaris lost their weekend home in Healdsburg, CA as a result of the 2019 Kincade Fire. Guy Molinari, as a PG&E retiree, felt a strong sense of loyalty to his former employer of 38 years. Moreover, the Molinaris did not understand that they potentially had recourse against PG&E for their 2017 fire damages until they sought legal counsel to represent them in their Kincade Fire claim.
10. On February 17, 2020, the Molinaris retained Skikos, Crawford, Skikos, & Joseph LLP.
11. On December 28, 2020, a Proof of Claim was filed on behalf of Guy and Teresa Molinari, Claim Number 106843. A true and correct copy of the Subject Proof of Claim is attached to this Declaration as Exhibit 1.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on December 30, 2020.

Instructions for Proof of Claim (Fire Claim Related)

United States Bankruptcy Court

You may have a claim against the Debtors for monetary loss, personal injury (including death), or other asserted damages arising out of or related to a fire. You should consider obtaining the advice of an attorney, especially if you are unfamiliar with the chapter 11 process and privacy regulations.

A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000, imprisoned for up to 5 years, or both.
18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157 and 3571.

How to fill out this form

- Fill in all of the information about the claim as of the date this claim form is filed.
- If the claim has been acquired from someone else, then state the identity of the last party who owned the claim or was the holder of the claim and who transferred it to you before the initial claim was filed.
- For a minor child, fill in only the child's initials and the full name of the child's parent or guardian. For example, write A.B., a minor child (John Doe, parent). See Bankruptcy Rule 9037.
- You may but are not required to attach supporting documents to this form.
Supporting documents will be gathered, maintained, and provided at a later date as instructed by the Court. If you do attach documents, you should attach redacted documents as supporting documentation will be made publicly available and will not be kept confidential. See the definition of redaction of information below.
- Do not attach original documents because attachments may be destroyed after scanning.
- Question 3. Members of a family may but are not required to file a proof of claim as a family but may, if they choose, submit individual claim forms for each family member that has a claim against the debtors.

- Question 9. If you suffered property damage, then provide the street address of each real property parcel where you suffered property damage. If you were personally evacuated as the result of a fire, then provide the address or intersection closest to where you encountered the fire and began evacuation. If you suffered property damage and were evacuated from a different location, include both. If you were a renter, provide the address of your residence.
- Question 10. This question requests general statements of underlying facts relating to harm and is not intended to be exhaustive or preclusive.
- Question 11. You are not required to include a claim amount with your proof of claim. Providing a claim amount at this time is optional.

Confirmation that the claim has been filed

To receive confirmation that the claim has been filed, enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this form together with the original. You may view a list of filed claims in this case by visiting the Claims and Noticing Agent's website at <https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/pgc>.

Understand the terms used in this form

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. In this instance, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas & Electric Company.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the creditor has a claim against the debtors on or before the date of the bankruptcy filing (in these cases, January 29, 2019). The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.

Please send completed Proof(s) of Claim to:
